Reading Activities

License to read: On car trips, make it a game to point out and read license plates, billboards, and interesting road signs.

Better than TV: Swap evening TV for a good action story or tale of adventure.

Look and listen: Too tired to read aloud? Listen to a book on tape and turn the book's pages with your children. You'll still be reading with them!

Recipe for reading: The next time you cook with your children, read the recipe with them. Step-by-step instructions, ingredients, and measurements are all part of words in print!

Shop and read: Notice and read signs and labels in the supermarket. Back home, putting away groceries is another great time for reading labels.
