Now that your parents or guardians know how to greet someone in Spanish, teach them how to answer this question and say their name. Ask the question and answer it yourself first. Then have your parents or guardians repeat the question and answer after you.

—¿Cómo te llamas?

—Me llamo (your name).

Finally, teach your parents or guardians how to be polite in Spanish. Tell them to say Por favor (Please) when they ask for something and Gracias (Thank you) when they get it. Don't forget De nada (You're welcome)! Ask your parents or guardians to be polite with you in Spanish for one week. Of course, be polite to them, too!
