Anansi's New Trick

- 1 Anansi the spider came down the path one day. He saw Mole Rat's burrow and stuck his little face in.
- 2 "Mole Rat!" Anansi said. "I have discovered something!"
- 3 "What is it, Anansi? You're always discovering something," Mole Rat answered, blinking at the bright sun outside his burrow.
- 4 "But this time it's something amazing!" Anansi cried. "I have discovered that the weak are very strong!"
- 5 "But I am weak. I am not strong!" Mole Rat said.
- 6 "Yes, you are, if you know how to trick others," said Anansi. "I was sunning myself, and Hunting Dog came down the path. Hunting Dog, who is so much bigger than me! I hid behind a leaf and said, 'Hunting Dog—I am Flea!' So Hunting Dog got scared and ran away!"
- 7 Anansi laughed and continued with another story. "I was crossing my web, and Eagle flew near. Eagle, who is so much bigger than me! I hid beneath a branch and said, 'Eagle—I am the little snake with the bad poison!' So Eagle got scared and flew away!"
- 8 Before Mole Rat could say a word, Anansi went on with yet another story. "I was climbing a tree, and Elephant came along. Elephant, who is SO much bigger than me! I hid behind a rock and said, 'Elephant—I am Man.' So Elephant got scared and ran away."
- 9 After Anansi left, Mole Rat was bothered by the spider's bragging and his impolite words and actions toward others. When the sun went behind some clouds, Mole Rat looked up into the sky and called to Nyame, the Sky God. "Great Nyame, Anansi is bragging that he is the strongest through his weakness, because he plays tricks on others. You must strike him with your lightning!"

<sup>10</sup> Nyame looked down at Mole Rat and said, “Don’t worry, Little One. We will teach Anansi a lesson. But I don’t like to hurt my creatures. Anansi is very smart—we will use HIS way of doing things.”

<sup>11</sup> “How will you do it, then?” asked Mole Rat.

<sup>12</sup> “Oh,” Nyame said, “he will learn. When a creature tells too many lies, sometimes he forgets who he is.”

<sup>13</sup> That day, Anansi went down to the lake to drink. When he looked into the water, he saw—a spider! Now it was Anansi’s turn to get scared and run away!
